Joint News (Aerie and Auxiliary)

Burger Night-

Boy Scout Troop 51 $1750.

Authentic Connection - $430. Money will go toward the Community Wide Easter Egg Hunt.

Chicken Night- Peosta PTO- $750 this money will help fund field trips and extra expenses for teachers and their classrooms.

Work is being done on the Asbury Eagles Club sign in front of the club.

The Golf Committee is already planning the Golf Outing slated for May 15. The committee is seeking hole sponsors, items for Silent Auction, volunteers to help with the event.

Unfortunately, we had to cancel the last Pizza Night and the Daytona 500 Party due to lack of volunteers, which delivered a severe blow to our helping those in need. It is critical that you step up and volunteer even if it is only a hour or two. If you want to help, Contact: Todd Bauer tntbauer@mchsi.com /call 563-580-4697.

Auxiliary News

The winner of the Christmas Basket was Cindy Freiburger. $815 was raised from the basket raffle to benefit auxiliary activities.

The information for the four High school Scholarships have gone out to the three Dubuque High schools.

Discussion was held on putting together a Basket for Mother's Day. Items for the basket should be brought to the March Meeting. The organization benefiting from the raffle will be determined at the March meeting.

The Asbury Eagles Club met at the Village Bar in Kieler for their annual Holiday Party. All were invited to attend.

Information on the State and the Mink Conferences was provided.

The auxiliary voted to donate $20 to the Mink Conference and $25 to the Iowa visit from the Grand Madam President.

The Asbury Eagles Club is desperately seeking volunteers to help with the food events. We need 4-5 people for food prep the day before the event and to help with the food event. If we do not get volunteers to help, the food events are in danger of being canceled.

The March Meeting of the Auxiliary will meet Tuesday, March 4 instead of Monday, March 3.
